HEALTH AND WELLNESS FAIR

6th Annual Community Day Health and Wellness Fair

Saturday, August 27, 2022

The Places of Worship Advisory Board, in partnership with Valley Avenue Day, is excited to announce that the 6th Annual Community Day Health and Wellness Fair will take place on Saturday, August 27, 2022 from 2:00pm to 6:00pm at Oxon Run Park, 1200 Mississippi Avenue SE, Washington, DC 20032.

This year's Community Day Health and Wellness Fair will provide community members with lots of FREE opportunities for food, friends, and fun, including:

- Free lunches to the first 700 residents
- Free vegetables and fruit
- Free school supplies, vaccination, and teeth exams for children
- Free Washington Nationals, Wizard/Mystic tickets
- Therapy robot dogs for seniors
- Health education for individuals from the DC, Maryland, and Virginia (DMV) areas

Attendees are welcome to bring lawn chairs and grills to this event!

The main stage will host as speakers DC Health's Clover Barnes, Rev. Carmi Washington-Flood from the Maryland Department of Health, Veronica Cosby from the Virginia Department of Health, and Councilmember Trayon White Sr. of Ward 8. It will also showcase entertainment from interfaith musical and dancing groups, including African Drumming of Imani Temple African American Catholic Congregation, songwriter and producer Robert E. Person, and Minister Tia LyDawn Singleton.

Special Feature: Musical Artist Let It Flow GoGo Band

An R&B / Neo-Soul ensemble consisting of some of the Washington metro area's finest musicians and vocalists, Let It Flow GoGo Band captivates audiences with a stirring mix of contemporary jazz, new-soul, R&B, and hip-hop sprinkled with a few old school classics.
