All hearings are conducted in the English language. If you or any witnesses to be called are deaf, have a hearing impediment, or cannot readily understand or communicate the spoken English language, an application may be made to the Board for the appointment of a qualified interpreter.

The charge upon which the summary suspension is based is set forth below.

Charge:                    The States of Arizona and North Carolina and the Commonwealth of Virginia suspended your medical licenses for those jurisdictions, for which the Board can take summary action to suspend your license under D.C. Code § 3-1205.15(a)(1)(A).

On August 16, 2023, the Arizona Medical Board (Arizona Board) prohibited you from engaging in the practice of medicine in Arizona, under your Arizona Medical License No. 67258. The Arizona Board made an interim finding of fact that you violated a Stipulated Rehabilitation Agreement (SRA), effective March 9, 2023, which required you to abstain from consumption of alcohol and comply with monitoring. On July 25, 2023, the Arizona Board was notified you violated the SRA by consuming alcohol. You and the Arizona Board entered an Interim Consent Agreement for Practice Restriction, barring you from practicing medicine in that state in Case No. MD-23-0760A, and agreeing that you are “prohibited from engaging in the practice of medicine in the State of Arizona . . . until [you] appl[y] to the Executive Director and receive[] permission to do so.” Arizona Interim Consent Agreement at p. 2 ¶ 1. As a result, the Virginia Department of Health Professions suspended your license to practice medicine in Virginia on September 18, 2023. On October 16, 2023, you and the North Carolina Medical Board entered into a consent Interim Non-Practice Agreement, where it was ordered that you “will not practice medicine until such time as [you are] given permission to do so by the Board President.” North Carolina Interim Non-Practice Agreement at p. 3 ¶ 1. To date, your medical licenses in Arizona, North Carolina, and Virginia have not been reinstated.

Please note that under 17 DCMR § 4103.2, your failure to appear at the time and place set for the hearing, either in person or through counsel, or both, will not preclude the Board’s proceeding in this matter.
