Today's Agenda

Goal and Objectives for Today

Goal: Build the capacity of faith and ministry leaders to engage their congregations and communities to discuss and address public health concerns and reducing health disparities in our communities.

Objectives:

- Learn and help educate others about the risks of opioids
- Improve early identification and intervention, reducing stigma and increase knowledge of opioids.
- Expand access to services and resources to improve access to needed services.

Justin G. Wood

DEA- Washington Division, Diversion Program Manager (DPM) Justin G. Wood is a distinguished graduate of the Virginia Military Institute (VMI) with a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemistry and completed his Master of Science Degree in Chemistry from the Pennsylvania State University.

DPM Wood joined the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) in 2004 as a Diversion Investigator for the DEA Nashville District Office in Tennessee where he worked a wide variety of criminal, civil, and administrative cases from 2004 until 2012.

In 2012, Mr. Wood was reassigned to the Tactical Diversion Squad in the Nashville District Office where he focused solely on criminal investigations involving drug diversion. During this time, Mr. Wood was involved in numerous complex Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Force (OCDETF) investigations involving priority targets.

In 2014, Mr. Wood was promoted to the position of Diversion Group Supervisor in Birmingham, Alabama where he supervised diversion groups in Birmingham and Mobile, Alabama. In 2016, Mr. Wood also took on the responsibility of overseeing the Diversion Group in Little Rock, Arkansas.

In June 2018, Mr. Wood transferred to DEA Headquarters Pharmaceutical Investigations Section and subsequently was promoted to the position of Diversion Program Manager for the DEA Washington Division where he oversees diversion operations for the District of Columbia, Maryland, and Virginia.

During his career, DPM Wood has completed training in drug diversion, pharmacy thefts and prescription fraud, basic telephone and internet exploitation, interview and interrogation tactics, and leadership.

June is Men's Health Month

On Friday, June 17, the HHS Office of Minority Health will join the Men's Health Network to observe Wear Blue Day Exit Disclaimer as part of the year-round Wear BLUE awareness campaign to raise awareness for education about men's health. The OMH's Six Plays for Men's Health remind men and boys that they can improve their health by seeking medical advice and taking other important steps, such as making healthy food choices, staying active, quitting smoking, getting regular checkups, taking care of their mental health and being #VaccineReady.

- We will protect this heart
- Bro, you don't even have to lift
- Preventive Maintenance
- Quitting Time
- Hey man, you good?
- Be #VaccineReady
