Medical Marijuana Program
Notice for Application Period for Medical Marijuana Certification Provider

Summary: In accordance with Final Regulations published December 2, 2011, any person or entity wishing to become a medical marijuana certification provider shall obtain a medical marijuana certification provider permit which shall allow the holder to provide a medical marijuana training and education certification program in the District of Columbia. The regulations state a "medical marijuana certification provider" shall mean any person or entity approved by the Department of Health to conduct a medical marijuana and education training program as set forth in 22-C DCMR § 5105.2. A medical marijuana provider permit shall be valid for three (3) years.

An application for a medical marijuana certification provider permit shall: be completed on a form provided by the Department; include a copy of the proposed training materials, curriculum, and examinations; and include payment of the application fee and the annual fee for the entire three (3)-year permit period.

Applications will be made available on the Department of Health Medical Marijuana webpage at <http://hrla.doh.dc.gov/mmp> beginning on Friday, April 6, 2012. Completed applications should be addressed to: Patricia M. D'Antonio, Program Manager, Pharmaceutical Control, Health Regulation and Licensing Administration, Department of Health, 899 North Capitol Street, NE, 2nd Floor Washington, DC 20002. Applications shall be submitted in a manner to ensure signed receipt.
