CPR Training

You don't have to be a professional EMS responder to help save a life! There is a lot that you can do, like learning how to perform CPR, cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

DC Fire & EMS Department Training Courses

The DC Fire & EMS Department offers CPR training to members of the community on the first and fourth Thursday of every month. The class provides students with certification in CPR for Adult, Child and Infant. Upon successful completion of the four-hour training course, participants will receive CPR certification cards good for two years.

Class size is limited, and pre-registration is required.

For more information contact the DC Fire & EMS Department Training Academy at (202) 673-3245 or (202) 673-6901 or visit the Fire and EMS Department website.

Serve DC Training Courses

Serve DC offers CPR training, plus a variety of other free emergency preparedness training courses. To find out about the next CPR course, or to view other trainings that they offer, visit the Serve DC website or call them at (202) 727-7925.
