DOH Advises District Residents not to Consume Margaret Holmes 14.5 oz Turnip Greens and 14.5 oz Mixed Greens

(WASHINGTON, D.C.) – The DC Department of Health (DOH) is currently advising residents not to consume or purchase 14.5 oz Margaret Holmes Turnip Greens and 14.5 oz Margaret Holmes Mixed Greens due to possible contamination. This recall does not impact any other Margaret Holmes vegetables.

The affected product was distributed to retailers in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Washington D.C., Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee. The cans are marked at the top with the five digit production lot code of F13EX. Consumers who have purchased these products are advised to discard any remaining portion. DOH will continue to provide updates regarding the investigation as more information becomes available. If you may have consumed these products report this to your healthcare provider immediately, along with any symptoms you may be experiencing. Health care professionals should notify the DC Department of Health (202-442-9150) of any persons who may have eaten one of the contaminated products and become ill afterwards
