FROM THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
BOARD OF PSYCHOLOGY

Please share this information with colleagues or other interested parties

1. The District of Columbia Board of Psychology ("the Board") is forming a voluntary subcommittee, who will review the current laws and regulations and make recommendations to the Board as it updates its laws and regulations for psychologists and psychology associates. The Board welcomes the participation of clinical, applied, and school practitioners as well as other stakeholders.

TIME COMMITTMENT
- The subcommittee work will begin in January 2018 and is expected to conclude by May 2018.
- The subcommittee will meet at least monthly for 2-4 hours.
    - If selected to serve you will be notified by the Board and informed of meeting times and dates.

If you are interested in being considered to serve on the voluntary subcommittee, please submit a resume along with a short statement indicating the current client population you work with and why you want to participate on this group to Fatima.abby@dc.gov by Friday, November 24, 2017.

2. REMINDER: Current renewal (2017) ends December 31, 2017.
    - At the next renewal (2019), which covers January 1, 2018 – December 31, 2019, psychologists and psychology associates licensees must still complete thirty (30) contact hours of continuing education. Of the thirty (30) hours, three (3) hours must be in ethics and two (2) hours must be in LGBTQ competence. Fifteen (15) hours of the thirty (30) hours must be live/in person programs; the remaining fifteen hours may be online.

3. The Board monthly meetings (Open Session only) are open for the public to attend. Board meetings are held the second Thursday of each quarter (January, April, July, and October). View https://doh.dc.gov/node/160282 for additional information.

4. If you are interested in serving on the Board contact the Mayor's Office of Talent and Appointments (MOTA) at Elizabeth.keeton@dc.gov or on 202-724-7665 for an application to fill the current vacancy (1 psychologist).
